West region contributed the highest revenue.

Furniture generated strong sales but comparatively lower profit.

Copiers delivered the highest profit among sub-categories.

Top 10 customers account for a significant share of revenue.

Business Recommendations

Expand Technology product promotions.

Review discount strategy for low-profit categories.

Replicate West region sales strategy in Central and South.

Focus marketing during high-sales periods.

Reward top customers through loyalty programs.

Conclusion

The dashboard highlights strong overall business performance, with Technology leading sales and the West region driving revenue. However, profitability varies across categories, indicating opportunities to optimize pricing and discount strategies. By focusing on profitable products and strengthening lower-performing regions, the business can improve overall profitability.
